Danske Invest

Technology Index Fund G (FI0008803143)

This fund is managed by Danske Invest Fund Management Ltd, part of the Danske Bank group.

Objectives and investment policy

Objectives

The objective of the Fund's investment activity will be to achieve value increase in the long term by diversifying the assets in compliance with the Finnish Mutual Funds Act and the Fund's Regulations.

Investment policy

The assets are invested in publicly traded equities and equity-linked securities issued mainly by North American technology companies. Technology companies are mainly companies operating in the telecommunications, information technology, bio technology, electronics and communications technology sectors. The Fund has a passive investment strategy which means that the investment breakdown seeks to follow benchmark weights for the companies in question. In addition to direct investments in equities, the Fund may invest in derivative instruments to attain an equity market risk that is in line with the benchmark. The fund is categorized under SFDR as article 8 and promotes environmental and social characteristics, as well as good governance practices, through screening, restrictions as well as active ownership. The fund follows Danske Invest's responsible investment policy. The returns on the fund's investments, such as dividends and interest, will be reinvested. The fund's base currency is the euro.

The investment strategy is passive, i.e. index-based. This means that the investments in the portfolio reflects the fund's benchmark index. As an investor you can expect that the return in general corresponds to the development in the index. The return will typically be slightly lower than the development in the index due to charges. The Fund is suitable for investors who wish to make diversified investments in the equities of technology companies and who seek high returns, accepting substantial fluctuations or a decrease in the value of the investment. The fund is suitable as part of a diversified investment portfolio. Investors may subscribe for and redeem fund units on every banking day.

Recommendation: This fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 7 years.

Risk and reward profile

Lower risk			Higher risk
Typically lower return			Typically higher return
1	2	3	4	5	6

The fund is categorized as 6. The indicator illustrates the typical correlation between the risk and your potential return of the investment. The categorization is determined by the fluctuations in the fund's net asset value over the past five years and/or representative data.

Significant historical volatility equals high risk and low volatility equals lower risk. Please note that the fund's categorization is not constant and the categorization may change over time. Historical performance data is not necessarily a reliable indicator of the future risk profile.

The risk indicator is purely a mathematical calculation and it does not take devaluations, political intervention and sudden fluctuations in interest rates and currencies into account. Risk class 1 is not a risk-free investment.

The principal risks of the fund are equity risk, market risk, exchange rate risk and risk related to investment style or investment area (e.g. funds with more concentrated portfolios). As the fund will invest its assets in the equity markets, the value of the fund may fluctuate according to market conditions.

For further details about risk, please refer to the following section in the fund prospectus: "Principal risks of mutual funds."

General trading terms

Orders regarding fund units can be submitted in the manner specified in the section of the fund's regulations entitled "Subscription, redemption and switch of fund units".

Based on their return distribution, fund units are divided into either distribution units or growth units. No return is distributed on growth units; instead, all returns are reinvested in the fund to increase the value of the growth units. In contrast, the aim is that return is distributed annually on distribution units.
